5. METHOD OF SELECTION & MARKS PATTERN:

The selection will be finalized transparently by the Steering Committee based on the following selection frameworks:

Case A: If the total number of eligible applications received is less than 10:

Selection will be based entirely on academic weightage, experience, and an oral interview for a maximum of 50 marks:

- a. Technical Qualification Weightage (Maximum 30 Marks): Marks will be awarded proportionately based on the aggregate percentage secured in the qualifying technical examination (B.Sc. MLT / DMLT):

$$\text{Marks Awarded} = \frac{\text{Percentage of Marks Secured} \times 30}{100}$$

(Example: If a candidate secured 75% in their MLT course, they will be awarded $\frac{75 \times 30}{100} =$

22.5 marks. If a candidate secured 88%, they will be awarded $\frac{88 \times 30}{100} = 26.4$ marks

- b. HIV Field Experience (Maximum 10 Marks): 02 marks will be awarded for each completed year of experience in the HIV field, up to a maximum of 10 marks.
- c. Oral Interview & Aptitude (Maximum 10 Marks): Subject-related assessment and viva-voce conducted by the Steering Committee.

Case B: If the total number of eligible applications received is 10 or more:

A competitive screening process will be executed for a maximum of 50 marks:

- a. Written Examination (Maximum 30 Marks): Will consist of 30 Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs), valued at 1 mark each, covering core MLT subjects.

- b. HIV Field Experience (Maximum 10 Marks): 02 marks per completed year of experience in the HIV field, up to a maximum of 10 marks.
- c. Oral Interview & Aptitude (Maximum 10 Marks): Evaluation of subject competence and aptitude by the Steering Committee.
